OPC Gossip

Larry Allen, OPC member, is on his old stamping ground again, covering the war crimes trial in Germany.

Nola Luxford has been in Europe with a USO group for the past few months and sends regards. She says Europe is so full of stories that she is dizzy.

Best of luck and bon Voyage to Guy Hickok, v.p., off to Rome with UNRRA for a few years. We will miss him and the work he has done for the club. Guy told us he was taking a batch of membership blanks along with him.

Dora Miller has been in Paris for a month now but will be back by the end of the month.

Irene Kuhn is in China on a juicy assignment for NBC. We hear her uniform was a honey.

Mary Knight of our Washington contingent has been elected vice president of the Womens National Press Association. Hurrah!

"Flight from China" has just been published by our member, Edna Lee Booker. If we can find her, we will have her tell us about it at a luncheon.

Tom Johnson is back from some woodchopping in his camp in Minnesota. Brown and fit, Tom is ready to plunge into work.

Joe Israels has been hitting the magazines lately with A #1 scoops. "This WEEK" seems to get the most of them.

Lieutenant Hartell is back from the Merchant Marine and will be at the luncheons to say "Hello".

Gretta Palmer is due back soon from a tour of the Pacific area-taken by a group of women correspondents.

Did you read "Why I Like My Husband" by Bessie Beatty, in a recent issue of "This Week"?
